Royalty vs. Republicanism.
The Brooklyn Star makes the following contrast between the display of Royalty and the simplicity of Republicanism:

The daughter of the nominal ruler of Great Britain has just been married to a Royal personage of Europe. All that wealth and royal power could do, was done to make the occasion impressive and memorable. Priuses and Princesses, Lords and Ladies, united in the celebration, the people shouted and clapped their hands, schoolboys harnessed themselves to the bridal carriage, and the London Times devoted sixteen columns to a minute and glowing description of the event. Just about the same time, a man who has occupied the most elevated position in the American Republic, takes to himself a wife. The nuptial ceremonies are performed quietly and unostentatiously, just as thousands of domestic rites of like nature; and the only public announcement of the event is comprised in three lines of the newspapers, stating that on Wednesday night, Millard Fillmore, ex-President of the United States, was married to Mrs. McIntosh. The contrast is significant, as indicating briefly and completely that of the customs and political theories of the Old and the New World.

Emigration to Virginia.

There has recently been a considerable flow of emigration into this and some of the neighboring counties of North Western Virginia. We have them from Germany, Sweden, Switzerland, the British Isles, New York, Connecticut and Canada. They are known in the countries from which they hail as being intelligent and industrious, and doubtless will add strength and wealth to the country of their adoption. They bring with them a large amount of gold, and it has been a good deal scattered among our citizens for land, stock and other articles which every new comer needs, and our citizens can well spare. Their land purchases are confined principally to the counties of Lewis, Upshur, Gilmer, Braxton, and we understand in several other of the adjoining counties. This emigration is effected through the agency of our enterprising townsmen, C. S. Burley, Esq., who has connected himself with the Emigrant Aid Company, and in whose hands the principal part of our land-holders have placed their lands for the purpose of furnishing emigrants with homes in our State. We would just remark, in connection with the above, that the lands now in the hands of this company (amounting to 20,000 acres) are as good as can be found in any portion of our State. The natural productions of these lands—bituminous coal, iron ore, salt, &c.—render them more valuable than any other lands in this State.—Hudson (Va.) Herald.

Recovery of an Immense Claim against the Russian Government.

The Baltimore Patriot of the 4th inst., says that Thomas Winans, Esq., of that city, has recovered a claim of five millions of dollars against the Russian government, which makes his share of the proceeds from freight and passenger travel over the railroads of that country reach the sum of seventeen millions—drafts for which on the banks of Europe have been brought on to him. It appears that, in his contract with Russia, he was to receive a certain percentage on all freight and passenger travel, but it was thought by the government that they were exempted from this tax when applied to the transportation of soldiers to take part in the war in the Crimea. He accordingly engaged the services of John B. Latrobe, Esq., who went on and recovered the claim by due course of law, and, on account of the many thousand soldiers transported, his proportion was swollen from twelve to seventeen millions. Mr. Latrobe, we understand, received a fee of $10,000 a month independent of his expenses, and upon reaching Baltimore, and announcing the result of his labors, was presented with a check for $100,000. The great wealth and liberality of Mr. Winans, renders him a valued citizen of Baltimore. The Patriot says that he has purchased a tract of land with water front at Caution, where, having received a contract from the Russian government, he will proceed to the construction of a number of magnificent vessels of war.

Mr. Winans is the gentleman who illuminated his residence in Baltimore, when news was received of some good fortune of the Russians during the Crimean war, and it is certain that he had good reason to take interest in the welfare of his friends.

Profits of Tobacco.

Difference of Northern and Southern Taste.—There are fifty-six manufacturers of this staple in Richmond, whose total capital amounts to four or five millions of dollars. More tobacco is raised in Virginia, and opened, inspected and sold in this city, than perhaps in any one place in the United States. It is here that the choicest specimens of the weed assume the shape which commands it to the regard of devoted chewers everywhere. Tobacco is put in as many different ways almost as there are chewers. There is as much difference between ideas of the Yankee and Southerner on this question of taste, as there is on any other matter. The former likes his "puff" plentifully sweetened and liquored to a degree; the latter, the less sweetening you put in it, the better the tobacco. Buyers congregate here, who purchase for all parts of the globe. Foreign Governments are supplied by agents who reside here for that purpose. With many citizens the road to wealth has been via tobacco.—Richmond Daily.

Attempted Murder.

ALBANY, Feb. 14.—A man named Albert Brayton, from Herkimer county, was arrested here on Saturday night for attempting to commit a murder. He threw his child, a few minutes old, into a privy, where it was soon after discovered and rescued. The child lived several hours after it was taken out. Brayton admitted that he threw it into the privy, but said he supposed it was dead. He has been married about three months. He gave bail in the sum of $2,000 to answer the charge.

Missionaries to China.—Dr. Bushnell McCarter, M. D., and Rev. M. S. Culbertson, with their families, of the Presbyterian board of foreign missions, sailed from New York last week for Hong Kong. They went out originally in 1843 and '44, and are now, after a transient visit home, returning to their missionary stations at Ningpo, one of the northern ports of the empire, 118

Heart-rending Occurrence—Three Children Drowned.

One of the most melancholy and heart-rending casualties that it has been our duty to record for a long time, says the York Republican of Wednesday last, occurred between four and five o'clock last evening, in the vicinity of the Railroad Bridge, below Loucks' Mill, about 1½ miles from this Borough. The particulars, so far as we are able to glean them, are as follows: Five children, three boys and two girls, who were returning home from school in Manchester township, ventured upon the ice on the Codorus, but it not being of sufficient thickness to bear their weight, four of the number broke through, and before assistance could be rendered three of them were drowned. The fifth child, a little girl, gave the alarm to some young men from this place who were fishing near by, (among whom was Mr. Henry Hubley,) who hastened to the rescue of the children. Mr. Hubley, at the risk of his own life, with much difficulty succeeded in bringing the other little girl safely to shore. Two of those who perished were sons of a Mr. Bayler, and the other a son of Mr. Philip Lohr. The body of only one of them had been recovered last evening. We have not heard the age of either of the children.

"Murder Will Out."

A short time since, a prisoner was sent to the Nashville Penitentiary from East Tennessee for counterfeiting. He gave his name as Henry Ford. It was afterwards ascertained that his true name was Thomas Wayne, and that about eight or ten years ago he enticed a man into the woods, near Clarksville, Tennessee, where he cut his throat, robbed him, and beat him with a pistol, until he supposed him dead. The poor victim, however, revived, and was seen by persons on a steamboat passing, taken on board, and lived long enough, at least, to tell the particulars of the deed. Wayne was arrested, and after an examination, was held to bail in ten or twenty thousand dollars. His mother, an estimable lady, became security for his appearance, and he fled. Mrs. W. was pecuniarily ruined by the payment of the bond money—Wayne is in the Penitentiary for three years. After his time expires, he will be held for trial for the crime of which we have spoken.

A Sad Mis-Step on the Threshold of Life.

The case of Charles Albaugh, who was this afternoon sentenced to the penitentiary for three years, is a sad one.

He is quite a young man, the son of highly respectable parents at Mount Gilead, and but a fortnight since was married to a young lady of one of the first families in that place. He had been employed to carry the mail from Mount Gilead to the railroad, about two miles distant. Frequent complaints of mail robberies in that direction had been made, and decoy letters were sent by special mail agent Prentiss, resulting in the arrest of young Albaugh on the 28th of last month. Judge Wilson took his youth and the circumstances of the case into consideration when he fixed the term of punishment—three years in the penitentiary. What a beginning of life for a young man who but a few days before had risked an estimable young girl's destiny with his!—Cleveland Herald of the 12th Inst.

A Victim.

A young man, a carpenter, arrived at St. Louis on Monday from Chicago, en route for Kansas. On unlatching his carpet sack he found he had been robbed of $600 in gold. He remembered that he had for a few moments left the carpet sack on his seat in the car while purchasing his ticket. He had then just been conversing with a courteous stranger, whom, on his return, he found missing, and who doubtless unlocked the sack, lightened it of the money, relocked it, and departed praying for the young man's welfare. To this gentleman he remembered confiding the interesting fact that he was an emigrant and bound for Kansas. The sum lost probably consisted of the treasured earnings of many a day of hard toil. How numerous are those bitter chapters of private history!

Church Burnt at Annapolis.

ANNAPOLIS, Feb. 14.—Last night, about half-past ten, the commodious and ancient Episcopal Church, located in the centre of the city of Annapolis, was discovered to be on fire under the floor, having caught from the furnace used for heating. The citizens turned out with alacrity, and labored valiantly in an endeavor to save the building. The dense smoke and scarcity of water, added to the great want of fire apparatus, made their efforts unavailing. The building, with all its contents, was consumed, nothing remaining but its walls.—There was no insurance. The edifice was over a century old, but in a very excellent and substantial condition.

Dreadful Accident.—The Harrisburg Telegraph records a dreadful accident at Union Deposit Furnace, South Hanover, Pa. One of the furnaces not working satisfactorily, in order to ascertain what was wrong, the workmen engaged in the work of cleaning the lower part of the furnace out; but whilst they were engaged, the hot metal came running out in its torrent, so unexpectedly, that five persons were literally showered over with the liquid fire, immediately setting their clothing on fire and burning them in a dreadful and shocking manner. Some of the unfortunate men jumped into the canal, and others into the water tub; but this proved unsatisfactory, as they were so dreadfully burned that no human help could save them. John Baker, David Landis, W. Murray, and a man called Moses Wolf, another of the injured, can hardly survive his injuries.

Volcanic in Maine.—An avalanche of ice and snow, which descended upon the house of Mr. Elihu Murray, in Montville, Maine, broke in the doors and windows, filling the lower rooms with snow and water and bursting the partitions, descending into the cellar. Mrs. Murray was thrown down the stairs and had her arms broken and her shoulder dislocated. The path of the avalanche across the farm was forty to fifty feet wide, carrying away walls, fences, &c.

The Leesburg Washingtonian says: "A calf two years old was killed by Mr. Adam Householder, of German settlement, on Monday, 25th of January, which weighed net 687 pounds; the hide weighed 118 lbs, and the meat 52 lbs. This cannot be easily beat."

From the National Intelligencer, of Tuesday last.

An accident by fire took place last evening, whereby Miss REILLY, daughter of Hon. WILSON REILLY, of Pennsylvania, [representative from this district] boarding at Kirkwood's Hotel, was put in imminent danger of her life. She had dressed for the hop at the National, and was leaving one of the parlors at Kirkwood's, when by some means her dress, which was of a very light texture, caught fire. Miss R. screamed and ran, bringing another lady to her assistance. Happily for both, a gentleman, (Mr. J. N. JONES, of Wisconsin,) whose coolness and judgment the ladies will have reason ever to remember, rushed up, kept off the second lady, whose dress was also very combustible, threw Miss R. to the floor, and in a moment succeeded in beating and trampling out the flames. Miss Reilly is burnt about the chest and one arm, though it is hoped not seriously, and Mr. Jones suffered somewhat in one hand. But for his prompt and judicious intervention, both the ladies would have been injured, perhaps irreparably.

Letters from Washington state that the President is determined to persist in his effort to force the Lecompton Constitution through the two Houses of Congress. He is prompted to this course chiefly through the persuasion of the Southern members.

They contend that it will not do to show the white feather now. The vote in the House is regarded as a signal rebuke, but some confidence is felt, because of the reverse in the Senate, of the Lecompton Constitution, or rather the President's Message concerning it, to the Committee on Territories. It is argued still further that a change may take place in the House, especially as the patronage of the Government may be brought to bear upon one or two refractory members.

Kansas and the United States Senate.—It is stated that the democratic Senators in caucus on Saturday last determined that when the bill for the admission of Kansas was reported to the Senate it should be taken up and considered until finally disposed of, without any postponement. They also, it is said, concluded to recognize the right of the people of Kansas to amend their constitution whenever they see proper, and nothing contained in the Constitution shall be permitted to interfere with this right.

The Twenty-Second at Richmond.—It appears President Buchanan is expected at Richmond, Va., on the 22d, as arrangements have been made for his accommodation. Secretary Floyd, and Governor Newell, of New Jersey, have accepted invitations to be present. A grand "State dinner" is to be given on the occasion, tickets to which will be sold at $5 each, to such persons other than invited guests, who may desire to participate.

The editor of the Southern Mercury speaks of his party as "the heavy-handed Democracy." They may be heavy-handed, but when they have been within arm's length of the public spoils, they have shown themselves light-fingered.—Prentiss.

The Public Works.—A bill is before the Legislature, providing for the sale of the public works belonging to the State to the Sanbury and Erie Railroad Company, for $5,500,000. Public sentiment will sustain any measure likely to relieve the State of this unproductive burden upon future terms; and the bill having been introduced by a leading Democrat, its passage is not improbable.

A Heavy Loss.—The sugar-house on the Louisiana plantation of Col. Jacob Hollingsworth, of Hagerstown, Md., was destroyed by fire a few weeks ago. The Herald says there were several hundred hogsheads of molasses and a large quantity of sugar stored in the building, all of which was burnt. The loss is estimated at upwards of $30,000, upon which, however, there was no insurance of $28,000.

Narrow Escape.—The New Haven Palladium says, on Friday, the 5th, a train of cars on the Danbury and Norwalk road, struck a horse and wagon at the crossing, near Umpawing Poud. The horse was killed, the wagon smashed up, and the man, with his cushion and buffalo robe, landed on the top of the cow-catcher, uninjured.

The President, it is stated, has nominated Col. Johnson, of the Utah expedition, to be a Brigadier General.

Indian Depredations in Texas.—Starting intelligence has been received at Austin, Texas, of Indian depredations in Brown county, of that State. Five persons had been murdered in cold blood, and the settlers, generally alarmed at the unchecked enormities of the savages, divided into three separate parties, had taken refuge in the adjacent forts. The Legislature of Texas passed a bill for the raising and equipment of one hundred men, and an appropriation for the purpose of $75,000.

Accidents in York County.—The York (Pa.) Republican states that Capt. Israel Reinhard, of the Fremont House, at that place, accidentally fell down a flight of about a dozen steps on the 10th instant, and was considerably but not dangerously injured. Col. Wm. Wallace, of Hopewell township, had one finger cut off and three more crushed in his saw-mill recently; and Mr. Wm. Neff, of the same place, had a finger cut off and his hand otherwise injured by a threshing machine.

From the York Republican.

Military Matters.—From the report of Gen. Thomas J. Pow. er, Adjutant General of the Commonwealth, made to the Governor, and accompanying the reports submitted to the present Legislature, at the commencement of the session, by Gov. Pollock, in connexion with his annual message, we learn that there are 63,225 uniformed militia, (volunteers,) in the State, composed of Cavalry, Artillery, Infantry and Riflemen. The number of companies in the State is 271; consisting of 40 companies of Cavalry—43 of Artillery—98 of Infantry, and 59 of Rifles. In this, the Fourth Division, composed of York and Adams counties, there are four uniformed companies. In the First Brigade, (York Co.) we have the Worth Infantry, of York Borough; the Scott Infantry, of Wrightsville, and the Buchanan Guards, of Hopewell and neighboring townships. In the Second Brigade, (Adams Co.) the Independent Blues, of Gettysburg, is the only company. The military spirit, from these facts, does not seem to be very active within the bounds of this Division. The field and staff officers of the two Brigades, composing this Division, are

FIRST BRIGADE. (York County.)

Brigadier General—George Hay.
Brigade Aid-de-Camp—Abiel F. Eich- elberger.

Brigade Major—John M. Deitch.
Brigade Quarter-Master—Solomon Myers.
Brigade Inspector—D. A. Sculler.

SECOND BRIGADE. (Adams County.)

Brigadier General—William F. Walter.
Brigade Aid-de-Camp—Thomas A. Mar- shall.

Brigade Major—D. A. Buehler.
Brigade Quarter-Master—Sam'l Eicholz.
Brigade Inspector—John Scott.

Wisconsin Democrats.—A recent mass convention of Democrats at Janesville, Wisconsin, passed the following resolutions:

"Resolved, That we, Democrats of the State of Wisconsin, in Mass Convention assembled, do hereby fully endorse the Administration of James Buchanan, except so far as it is committed to the policy of admitting Kansas into the Union under the Lecompton Constitution, without a ratification of that instrument by a full expression of the popular will of that Territory."

A pretty important exception that, considering how thoroughly the Administration is committed to the said policy.

The Catholic Church on Drunkenness.

Bishop Bayly, the Catholic bishop of New Jersey, has issued a manifesto bringing the machinery of the church to bear against the vice of drunkenness.

His letter on the subject has been read in all the churches, in which he calls attention to two classes—the drunkards themselves, and the dealers in liquor. Leaving to the pastors the particular means to be used, he suggests that each should keep a list of the drunkards and liquor dealers in his church. He says:

I am determined to make use of the most severe measures against all who are addicted to this scandalous and destructive vice; and if they continue in the practice of it they must do it as outcasts from the Catholic church, who have no right to the name of Catholic while they live, nor to Christian burial when they die.

From the Utah Army.—A letter has been published, written by Col. A. S. Johnson, the commander of the Utah army, to a member of his family in Louisville, Kentucky, dated at Camp Scott, near Fort Bridger, December 12th, 1857, the following extract from which embraces all that is of any general interest:

"Some think the Mormons, when it is necessary to make the issue with them, will submit to the government. I do not agree with them. I think their fanaticism and cruelty will lead them to try one encounter at least; and I think our government ought to decide it, as affording a simple solution of a difficult political question. If they resist, a final settlement would be on the basis of a conquest. We could then dictate to them the terms of adjustment."

A horrible case of spontaneous combustion is reported as having recently occurred in Cairo, Illinois. A man named Faxon, suffering under delirium tremens, entered a saloon and called for a glass of brandy. Immediately after drinking it his breath came in contact with a lighted match in the hand of a bystander, and instantly took fire and burned for nearly two minutes, when death ended his tortures. The agonizing screams of the wretched man are described as having been terrible in the extreme.—Louisville Democrat.

Enjoying the Fun.—The boys, and some of the "children of a larger growth," had what they esteemed fine sport at St. Louis, on Friday and Saturday, in snow-balling. They went into it with a relish all over the city. Some of them ran the fun into the ground, and eighteen of this class were arrested by the police for being disorderly. The Republican says:

On many streets the storekeepers found it necessary to put up their shutters and close their doors to prevent the breaking of glass and spoiling of goods. Morgan street, in some portions, was damaged outrageously, scarcely a pane of glass or a whole door being allowed to remain.

The Late Thomas Ritchie.—It is said in the late Mr. Ritchie's house, in Washington, D. C., inkstands were distributed wherever one could be placed, and even occupied a place in his garden. This was done for the purpose of noting a thought, and by this means the veteran editor preserved what other men would have lost.

From the Harrisburg Telegraph.

Look at the Figures.—In examining the late report of the Auditor General, and comparing it with those for a number of years previous, we were struck with the great, and to us, unaccountable difference between the fees paid into the Treasury by the Secretary of the Commonwealth during Gov. Pollock's administration and that of his immediate predecessor. The disparity is so great that we took the trouble to examine each year separately for the last six, and give the figures below.

The Secretary of the Commonwealth is required by law, to render quarterly statements of the fees received in his office, and this must be done under oath, either by himself or his Deputy.

For many years past, the Deputy Secretary of the Commonwealth has been the receiving and disbursing officer of the Department.

The fees of the office are generally received in small sums, and that officer is the only guaranty for their payment into the Treasury.

THEY TELL ME THOU'R'T MARRIED
A POETICAL LETTER TO J. D. F.

BY SAM. J. VANDERKLOP

They tell me thou art married—
That thy wayward heart is bound—
And to Hymen's shrine have turned
Proudless love and hope profound.
When I heard it, there came over me
Such lassions of the past,
That a spectre rose before me,
Saying—say, "The best is last."

Thou wast "first" to speak of Cupid,
Hiccup Hooches and sweet flowers;
I was "second"—the stupid—
Seeming dead to woman's powers,
"Bachelor," thou saidst, was written
On my breast, and over my soul;
While thy breast was sulution
With helle-bells—, its goal.

Sinew then, from our cup of action,
Other friends have learned to quaff;
And whilst long thought first a "fraction,"
I had joined the "other half."

Oh, the secret is inscrutable,
And the truth I cannot keep:

Love, with thee, was then alive—
But, with me, was silent—dead.

Yet, they say, thou'rt learned to love her
With an ardor, fervent—

She, whom thou didst first discover
As a virgin from above;

Love her truly; love her ever;

May thy soul be in eternal peace;

And, may strews attend thee—never!—
Is my osman—dear friend.

Dressing Suicide.

On Friday week, Mrs. SIEURON SINTHBERGER, wife of Rev. Michael Sintberger, pastor of the Salem Evangelical (German) church in Lancaster, committed suicide by throwing herself into a well on the premises of her husband in West King street. The well was about twenty feet deep, and contained about three feet depth of water. In the descent her head struck a projecting rock, inflicting a fearful and necessarily mortal wound. She was soon to throw herself into the well, and her husband was immediately informed of the fact. He at once descended, and with the aid of some neighbors drew the body out, but life was extinct. The unfortunate woman was in the prime of life and highly esteemed by her family and friends. She was subject to occasional fits of insanity, and in one of these threw herself into the well. Just before committing the act she was observed to behave in a strange manner, and one of the neighbors saw her approach the well, take off the covering, and then after looking up suddenly threw herself in. A coroner's inquest rendered a verdict that the deceased committed suicide while laboring under aberration of mind.

Determined Suicide of an Old Lady.

The Pittsburg Gazette says: We learn that an old lady named Winifred Fawcett, aged eighty years, residing on Kilbuck Run, some seventeen miles from the city, committed suicide on Sunday, by jumping into a well. She attempted this fatal act twice before, but was seen by her husband and taken back to the house. About one o'clock, while her husband was engaged at the dinner table, she ran towards the well. He pursued, but ere he could overtake her she had taken the fatal leap, and all efforts to save her proved in vain. Her body was raised soon afterwards, and an inquest was held by Esquire Rhodes, which resulted in the rendition of a verdict of death from suicide.

Couching by a Female M. D.—In Cincinnati, on Thursday, a striking drama, in which Mrs. E. H. Barry, M. D., and a licentious Lothario personated the parts, was improvised in the parlors of the Southgate House. It seems that she was first insulted by a man on the street, which she repulsed, and another one subsequently followed her to her office, and she was again grossly insulted, but succeeded in driving away Lothario No. 2. This was too much for the little woman, so she determined on redress. Resounding a cowhide, she proceeded to the Southgate House, found the chap, and gave him a most severe castigation.

A curious case of alleged poisoning was under examination before Alfred Enue, of Philadelphia, on Saturday last.—A young man named Robert B. Kirkpatrick, residing in Arch street, below Broad. About a month ago a package was handed in at Mr. E. Kirkpatrick's door, which on opening proved to be a very handsome pie, bearing a card with the inscription,—"For Mrs. E. Kirkpatrick, from Kate." Mrs. K. had frequently received pies from her aunt Kate, but she did not recognize the writing of her aunt. The card was thrown away, and the pie eaten the next day at dinner. A little son of Mr. E. K. eating a piece, remarked to his mother that it had medicine in it. The remainder of the pie was not eaten, but placed in the hands of skillful physicians for examination, and it was found to contain arsenic. The accused was held in $5,000 bail.

A Novel Party Dress—At a "fancy dress party" in Hartford, Ct, the past week, one lady appeared in a dress ornamented with hundreds of little bells, not much bigger than rain drops—affording music of the fairy kind in the dance. In some of the eastern countries dancing women wear bells on their ankles which tinkle in time with the music of the dance, and, perhaps, this custom suggested the more conspicuous display of this musical ornament.

Lynchings in Ohio.—The Pittsburgh Dispatch of Monday, 13th, says: A man, named Benjamin Coleman, was seized by the citizens of Miami town, Hamilton county, Ohio, on the 6th inst., for belonging to a gang of rascals who had spirited away horses, cattle, hogs, poultry, &c., from the farmers. He denied all knowledge of the gang or their transactions. A rope was placed round his neck and the fellow suspended till choked, then let down, and refusing to "own up," was suspended again till the blood oozed from his nostrils. He still plead innocent of their accusations—The enraged lynchers stripped him, laid him across a log, and flogged him with a horse whip, but he would reveal nothing. His injuries are mortal. The excitement is intense. The farmers have notified several suspicious characters to leave the country, or they'll hang 'em.

In removing some bodies from an old grave yard in Allentown, recently, two bodies were found to be petrified—one perfectly and the other partly so. The one was found to be almost as perfect as it appeared in life, but turned into solid stone. It had been buried fourteen years. The one partially petrified had been buried six years.
